

"Dedicated to the Development and Encouragement of Athletic Endeavour"

THE CALGARY BOOSTER CLUB

presents the second annual

SPORTSMEN'S AWARD DINNER

Lloyd Turner 1956 - Sportsman of the Year

Palliser Room, Palliser Hotel - Calgary, Alberta, February 4th, 1957

"Dedicated to the Development and Encouragement of Athletic Endeavour"

THESE ATHLETES OF THE PAST AND OF THE PRESENT WHO BY THEIR ABILITIES AND CONDUCT, HAVE CONTRIBUTED SO MUCH TO JUSTIFY THE PRINCIPLE ON WHICH THIS CLUB IS DEDICATED, ARE OUR HONORED GUESTS AND AWARD WINNERS:

- 1. LORNE CARR —
Prominent pool room operator, never behind the eight ball in the National Hockey League - an all time right winger and top NHL scorer.
 - 2. JIM CROSS —
One of Calgary's great boosters of all sports whose polo ponies even wear horseshoes stamped "Calgary".
 - 3. RED DUTTON —
NHL player, coach, general manager and president who just missed winning the Lady Byng Trophy on many occasions. President of Stampeder Football Club and Patron Saint of Local Musicians' Union.
 - 4. SID FINNEY —
Calgary's clutch hockey player and fastball star who is chief salesman for local chiropractors by tying opposing defencemen in knots.
 - 5. STAN FOSS —
The shot rock behind Calgary curling. He does so much hard work for the roaring game he is always taken for granite.
 - 6. BOB GARDINER —
The Winnipegger who made up his mind - Alberta Amateur Golf Champion. Keeping Calgary not only up to par but strictly to the fore.
 - 7. DICK HUFFMAN —
All time All-American N.F.L. and Canadian all star, and without doubt the highest priced bull in Cowtown.
 - 8. NORMIE KWONG —
The Calgarian who lost his mind - Canadian Football Player of the Year. Everybody outside of Edmonton agrees that he carries things too far.
 - 9. DOUG KYLE —
Canadian Olympic Distance Runner - holder of five Canadian and one North American record in 1956 who recognizes Vladimir Kuts, rear view only.
 - 10. HARRY LANGFORD —
Co-captain and Conference All Star Offensive Guard who wants to switch to defense so he can get into the game more often.
 - 11. ART MICHALUK —
Calgary's lone survivor of the 1946 Allan Cup Champions. The public defender who is never out of uniform, a staunch guardian of law and order both on or off the ice.
 - 12. BILL PULLAR —
The last of the 48's - called "Sweet William" because of his impeccable manners, gentleness and deep concern for the physical welfare of opposition quarterbacks.
 - 13. PAUL ROWE —
All Time Calgary and Canadian Fullback from 1938 to 1951 - six seasons against Hitler's ground attack and present millionaire on football savings. Cliff Cross acts as his bodyguard.
 - 14. DAVE SCHRINER —
NHL player, all star and league leading scorer - best remembered for his awkward style, tenacious backchecking and devastating bodychecks. A great rodeo fan who is campaigning to bar the Sport of Kings from Victoria Park.
 - 15. TINY THOMPSON —
Boston's "Horatio at the Bridge" - NHL all star goalkeeper and Vezina Trophy winner. Chicago's modern "Diogenes Searching the Wilderness" for players to lead them out of the pit.
 - 16. LLOYD TURNER —
SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR — inventor of hockey and cribbage, school mate of Louis Riel, obtained land from Chief Crowfoot to build Calgary's first rink and celebrating his 60th birthday next year.
